

“She's Not In Your History Book”

A Story Hour for Grown-Ups

Featuring

Joy Jones

Trainer, Author, Storyteller and Communicator

Hear stories of accomplished African and African American women from antiquity to contemporary times. They are noteworthy women who are seldom acknowledged for their achievements. Among the women featured are: Queen Hatshepsut, Egyptian pharaoh; Dorothy Dandridge, actress; and Ellen Craft, who along with her husband William Craft, staged a stunning escape out of slavery.

Monday, March 15, 2010

Bowie Center for the Performing Arts

15200 Annapolis Road, Bowie 20715 (Next to the High School)

6:30 PM Networking and Light Supper; 7:30 PM Program

Sponsored by...

- ❖ American Association of University Women of Laurel
 - ❖ Business and Professional Women of Laurel
- ❖ Business and Professional Women of Southern Prince George's
 - ❖ Soroptimist International of Bowie-Crofton

REGISTRATION FORM

Please register by March 5, 2010 – seating is limited. Price includes a light supper and the program.

Name: _____

E-mail (Optional): _____

Phone: _____

Cost: $30 per person, payable to SIBC (Soroptimist International of Bowie-Crofton). Mail to: SIBC, P.O. Box 652, Bowie, MD 20718. If you have questions, please call Kelly Pierce at 301/613-4329.

Come to be inspired and to socialize! Stay for the 50/50 raffle.